Fifth Sunday In Ordinary

9th / 10th February 2019

Cast into the Deep!

In Luke's Gospel today, Peter had every reason to be sceptical and hesitant about the Lord's command to "Put out into deep water." He was very exhausted having worked all night to no avail; he knew that the best time for fishing was at night; and that the sea tide was not favourable at that moment. But then he obeys the Lord, saying: "If you say so, I will cast out the nets." Peter is saying to Jesus: "Your instruction defies all the rules of the trade as I have known them all my working life; but trusting in your word I will do it." Though fatigued from a night of fruitless work, Peter places his faith in Christ, in spite of all the odds – and that was the defining moment of his life.

That significant leap of faith yields Peter what is probably the biggest catch of his fishing career; and the impact opens his spiritual eyes to recognize the divinity of Christ.

Overwhelmed by this miraculous turn of events, Peter cries out: "Depart from me Lord; I am a sinful man. His unworthiness is made clearer to him by his recognition of the divinity of Christ. Whenever we truly step beyond our human reason and place our anchor on Christ, we get transported deeper into the divine realm; and then we are struck by the height, the width and the depth of God – recognizing how much we cannot comprehend the immensity of his divine existence. The closer we get to God, the more we enter into the cloud of unknowing, realizing how much we do not know about him. That's the reason Peter declared himself a sinful man.

Do Not Be Afraid!

From the Book of Genesis (15:1) to the Book of Revelation (2:10), the phrase "Do not be afraid" runs through, usually followed by a promise of support from the Lord; to shatter our doubts and enliven us to put out into the deep of God. We are called not to settle for less or to be complacent – content to remain in our little comfort zone. We need to reach out for the hope he offers us in the midst of our hopelessness – to cast into the deep. Maybe we need to review a particular relationship that's dragging us down. Maybe we need to renew our commitment to someone we've been neglecting or taking for granted. Maybe we need to leave behind mediocrity and strive again for excellence in one area of our life. All we need do is to cast into the deep without fear.

In spite of all our mistakes, our misjudgments, our past, our sins…do not be afraid. Because, despite what we may think, and what we may fear: God stays with us, He never departs. But for us to stay close to God, we can't be complacent. The message of the gospel is clear: we need to separate ourselves from those things that separate us from God. Let our obstacles become stepping stones on account of the One who became poor that we might prosper, and died that we might have the fullness of life. Finally, my dear brothers and sisters, as we prepare to receive the Eucharist today, we come before the Lord like Peter, as sinful people. "Lord I am not worthy," we pray. But we also pray that he will only say the word, and that our souls will be healed.

Peace be with you! Fr Lucius

Lenten Discussion Groups

With Ash Wednesday being just three and a half weeks away our focus turns to the Lenten Discussion Groups. This year the Parish has decided to purchase the books for each participant but because of copyright restrictions each group will need to purchase a copy of the CD/DVD themselves. Coordinators of each group will need to liaise with the Parish Office prior to order the CD/DVD's when the Participant books are ordered. Sheets are at the rear of the Church for names of those Parishioners who would either like to host a group or be part of one.
