2021: A New and Different Year!

So, we thought we might like to "get back to normal:" whatever that might mean (has there even been such a time?!) But in the reality of a global pandemic, and even in the boundaries of our local Queensland "bubble," we have had to make some changes recently. In the way of being Church together we were called to change again after Christmas; wear masks, and remember that all is not so well as we might have thought. Fortunately, this has changed again, and we are back to being more free than many others in our world. But we are called to see that this is a "change again," maybe just for now!

This is not to live with negativity, or to be forlorn, but rather, in faith, to be who we are called to be, a people of hope and joy!

So, as I ponder these new year beginnings, I think of my sister Judy who lives on the other side of the world, and who is not going to be able join with us as family as we celebrate my Mother's 90th birthday. There is also a question whether one of my brothers will be able to return to his work and family if he joins us for this celebration. This is the reality of our context and our world; You and I can multiply out these sorts of circumstances and familial situations, as people try and gather with one another for family and communal gatherings, baptisms, funerals... even the simple weekly, or monthly gatherings of friendship groups in so many different aspects of our lives. We could also ponder those who have been excluded from visits from family friends, those in aged care or prisons: how difficult it is for them is our situation in these days?

In all these sorts of circumstances, how will we move forward into this New Year? Do we simply continue to smile at one another as if nothing is going on or different? Do we ignore the health warnings and embrace one another, shake hands, hug one another ... and so on? Do we pass the whole thing of a pandemic off as if it is all over, when we consider that hundreds of thousands of people have died, and there remain those who are infected as well, we are OK?

No, we are a people of this world, and a people of faith in the God of Jesus Christ, and live through the power of the Holy Spirit. With the psalmist we give thanks in the midst of discomfort, pain, suffering and even death:

Come in; let us kneel and bend low;

Let us kneel before the God who made us

For he is our God and we

The people who belong to his pasture,

The flock that is led by his hand.

First and foremost, we put ourselves in God's hands and God's providence. We hope and we put our trust in God and each other through the gift of the Spirit of Jesus Christ. Yes, we gather, but we do this with responsible wisdom; we pray, and do so in confident hope in the God of healing and mercy who journeys with us.

We see with the eyes of the heart of Christ, who sets us free, and calls us to see rightly in the truth of where and who we are.

Peaceful Blessings, Fr David
