In his message for this year's World Mission Sunday Pope Francis says: "Once we experience the power of God's love ... we cannot help but proclaim and share what we have seen and heard". And so we are compelled to take on Jesus' missionary call for us to, "Go therefore to the highways and byways, and invite everyone you find" (Mt 22:9). "No one is excluded," says Pope Francis, "no one need feel distant or removed from this compassionate love".

The theme of this year's World Mission Sunday - "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20), "is a summons to each of us," says Pope Francis, "to 'own' and to bring to others what we bear in our hearts". In these ongoing challenging times of the Covid-19 pandemic Pope Francis says there is an urgent need for a mission of compassion and for missionaries of hope. As Christians, "we do not proclaim ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord" (2Cor 4:5), and we hear the powerful message of life and hope that proclaims: "He is not here, but has risen" (Lk 24:6). "This message of hope," says Pope Francis, "bestows the freedom and boldness needed to rise up and seek with creativity every possible way to show compassion, the 'sacramental' of God's closeness to us, a closeness that abandons no one along the side of the road".

On World Mission Sunday we celebrate our call in baptism to be missionary disciples of Jesus, and in these challenging times, to be missionaries of compassion and hope. With gratitude in our hearts we give thanks to God whose grace enables us to be instruments of God's love in our world, so that in all we say and do, we can reflect God's compassion and hope, God's life-giving to our world. This is our mission - our call as missionary disciples of Jesus.

In his message Pope Francis says: "Let us remember especially all those who resolutely set out, leaving home and family behind, to bring the Gospel to all those places and people athirst for its saving message".

For over one hundred years, Columban missionaries have left our homelands to live and work alongside people living in poverty. Together with all those engaged in Columban mission, both at home and overseas, and with the support and prayers of our generous benefactors, in sharing the Good News we are a voice for transformation by providing humanitarian assistance and accompanying communities in their struggle to care for the environment, protect their livelihoods, and participate fully in society. .... 40% of local churches around the world are too young, or too poor, to support themselves, that is, thousands of parishes, schools, hospitals, centres of social service and support, and many other organizations within the Church. Columban missionaries, through the generous support of our benefactors, accompany and support these local churches. On this year's World Mission Sunday we thank all those who continue to support Columban mission.

"To be on mission," says Pope Francis, "is to be willing to think as Christ does, to believe with him that those around us are also my brothers and sisters". Let us pray in the words of Pope Francis: "May Christ's compassionate love touch our hearts and make us all true missionary disciples".

2022 Catholic Missions Church Appeal

With over 70% of households in the remote township of Emdibir in Ethiopia unable to provide enough nutritious food for their families each day, malnutrition and other health issues are a significant problem, especially for babies and young children.

In collaboration with the local community, the Church led by Fr Habtesilassie Antuan hope to establish a goat rearing centre, where nutritious milk will be produced and distributed to families in most need to help reverse and prevent illness and malnutrition. Please bring hope to those families by responding as generously as you can. Envelopes are on the seats and can be placed in the collection baskets. What we do for our brother, we are doing it for God. Because God is invisible, but we see Him in our brothers and sisters who are in need. May God bless you.

May God go with you as you leave this place and may God go with you in the coming week. God's strength will get you through the rough places, God's grace will sustain you when the world lets you down, God's essential goodness will counter the corruption around you, God's acceptance will model your response to prejudice, God's love will embrace you and keep you eternally secure. God will go with you as you leave this place and God will go with you in the coming week.

Chatters

The Chatters group will meet this Tuesday at 9.30am in the Mary McKillop Hall at St Peter's. A wonderful way to meet new people and form friendships over a cuppa and chat. New parishioners are always very welcome, so put it in your calendar and they will look forward to seeing you there!

Catholic Mission

Our children, along with students from St Columban's College, were recently invited to speak at Mass this weekend on behalf of Catholic Mission. They have been busy preparing and have participated in formation opportunities to better understand the work of Catholic Mission and the purpose of speaking at Mass.

The theme of the appeal this year is taken from the book of Acts and is 'You shall be my witnesses' and the support of the Emdibir Goat Farm in Ethiopia is the focus of the appeal. Although it is a beautiful and deeply historic place, Ethiopia's challenges, including conflict, poverty, and famine, have troubled its people for centuries. The growing influence of climate change will only serve to worsen these issues, and we are called to act now to work with local communities to support children and families in need, to preserve their dignity and to safeguard their future.

We are very proud of the students and their families who have accepted this call to support the work of Catholic Mission. As a school, we will have a Crazy Sock Day later in October to raise money to support this worthwhile cause.

Take care and go gently - Catherine

Inter faith Panel: Humility, Where Does it Get You?

Instead of perpetuating a fractured, isolated society which is damaging our mental health, let's explore humility and find our common humanity! In this interfaith panel conversation, the panel will discuss the role of humility in our personal development and in building stronger relationships. If you've never been to an interfaith event before, this is a great place to start. There will be time for chatting with those of other faiths (and finding out how much you have in common), yummy new foods to try, and the panel conversation itself.

Around our Parish

Last month's Little Flower chit-chat held at the Bribie RSL was a great success with nearly 30 people in attendance. Enjoying a round of Trivia, lucky seat prizes and each other's company. This has proved a great way to make new friends in a lighthearted and welcoming atmosphere. The next gathering will be held in November, we'll keep you posted with a date and time.

Each Sunday after Mass in the gardens of St Mary's the Parishioners come together to enjoy each other's company, a cuppa and some morning tea. This Sunday though it rained, and they had to move to the hall. If you are ever at Woodford on a Sunday morning for mass, make sure you stay as they will certainly make you feel welcome!
