Archdiocesan Prevention & Protection Policy

The Archdiocese of Brisbane holds that children, young people and vulnerable adults are a gift from God with an intrinsic right to dignity of life, respect and security from physical and emotional harm.

They are to be treasured, nurtured and safeguarded by all. Safeguarding Is Everyone's Responsibility

Safeguarding Coordinator

Sharron Macrae

In the Gospel Reading, Christ is crucified. The rulers who caused this crucifixion feel no compassion. They add to his misery by mocking his mission: he saved others; himself he cannot save. One of the two thieves crucified with him mocks him too: hey, Christ, save yourself and us!

Christ the King says nothing. He just hangs there, nailed to the wood of the cross.

Love that is willing to suffer is greater than power that is able to coerce

What the other thief says is astonishing. He rebukes the first thief, the one mocking Jesus, in the strongest possible way. "Have you no fear of God?" he says.

If you leaned over the edge of your chair and saw a giant python inching its way across your floor, you would leap sky high, wouldn't you? You wouldn't be making any mocking jokes right then, would you? The good thief wants to get the same reaction out of the bad mocking thief. Only it isn't a python that is meant to give the bad thief a reality check. It's the awesome power of the living God.

But how about a reality check for the good thief? Look at where Christ the King is! What's to fear about the God who lets his King be killed this way?

The whole earth is soaked with the tears of the suffering; and broken humanity is like the flotsam and jetsam everywhere on the ocean of history. What's to fear about God? Where is he?

On the cross—that is the answer.

God is love and all the power of God is there in the love shown by Christ's painful death. To save us, and to bring us to himself in heaven, God will suffer even the torment of death on the cross. Love that is willing to suffer is greater than power that is able to coerce, and that powerful love is there on the cross.

Someone habituated to mockery should fear this power. Sooner or later, the consuming fire of God's love will burn away his mockery's pretense at insouciance.

But someone who fears God because God loves him will find Christ in the way the good thief did. Sooner or later, he will hear Christ say to him, "This day you will be with me in paradise." Then he will know the victory of Christ the King, and he will be victorious with Christ.

Congratulations to Walter Waterson & Adele Cufari who will be Baptised into our Parish family this Weekend.

United Nations World Children's Day is celebrated on 20 November each year to promote international togetherness, awareness among children worldwide, and improving children's welfare. It offers each of us an inspirational entry-point to advocate, promote and celebrate children's rights, translating into dialogues and actions that will build a better world for our children.

There is a long tradition of holding raffles across our Parish for all manner of very worthwhile organisations and these have always been generously supported by you. We are asking you to come prepared on the weekend of the 26th /27th November & 3rd / 4th December at both St Peter's Church & Little Flower Church.

St Peter's Craft Group will be selling tickets in support of the Caboolture Community Action Group.

Little Flower Hospitality Group will be selling tickets in support of the Christmas Day lunch & emergency Packs for Domestic Violence.

Both have great prizes on offer and tickets are a very fair $1.00 each. It's a 'win-win' situation for all!

Copies of Break Open the Word will be available in the Sacristy this weekend to all our Ministers of the Word & Musicians. Please ensure you pick up yours as you will need them going forward into a new Church year. From the First Sunday of Advent our readings will be from Year A cycle.

2023 Rosters for our Ministers of the Word will be inside their copies of Break Open the Word. For all other Liturgical ministries; rosters will be available next weekend. Just a reminder that all our volunteers whether continuing or new will need to have completed the Archdiocesan Safeguarding data form.

A Children's Lit teacher asked her class why Joseph and Mary took Jesus with them to Jerusalem.

A small child replied: "Their Grandma was busy." 😊

Remembrance Day

Last Friday we gathered at 11am as a school community to recognise Remembrance Day. The children from 6 White led us in prayer and should be commended for the respect and reverence they showed. We were fortunate to be joined by some active and retired service men and women.

Take care and go gently, Catherine

'Celebration of Unity'

We are still getting people offering their services for our Unity celebration next year - THANK YOU!

Of course, it does take an army so if you would like to help, please get in touch. The committee will be meeting again on the 30th November, it will be wonderful having input from our schools and cultural communities. We've met with Wade the College Facilities Manager; Wade has offered his services on a variety of levels - including driving one of the buses! Thank you Wade. We hope you've put the date into your Calendar, diary, back of your mind - wherever it reminds you as we would love to see you there. Anyway, we'll provide updates on our progress. It's only 12 weeks now, but who's counting!

Got some spare time during the week and would like to make a difference? please call Dilar or Andrew at Caboolture Vinnies on 5495 7017 (apologies for the incorrect number in last week's newsletter)
