A message from Encounter Youth: A huge thank you to all of you; Youth and Parents. To the youth, thank you for turning up every Friday. It's been a blessing ministering to you throughout the year whether that be through music, small groups or just conversations. Your commitment has been a blessing.

To the parents, thank you for dedicating your Friday evenings to transport your children to and from youth activities, regardless of the weather conditions. Your commitment on these nights is essential to the successful operation of our youth group. We are immensely grateful for your support

We'll be praying for you and your families during this advent season; the season of preparation and anticipation for Christmas. God Bless, Encounter Team
