Ministry Matters

Well, it has finally happened. This weekend, we look back to the Christmas celebrations that occupied our lives somewhat and the arrival of the New Year for 2026, where. Everything is beginning once again. The office will be back to normal this week. (perhaps as normal as any active parish can be) The office staff will return to take up the mantle of parish administration as we look towards the year that is ahead for us.

In a few short weeks our Schools will return, and the various parish organisation will swing into action. So much is ahead for us as we move further into this year that will be for us, 2026.

Having said all of that I was amazed last Monday when I wandered through Woolies at Bribie island. The crib was still in place, and the child Jesus was at its centre, naturally. What amazed me was the fact that while the crib was still present to all the shoppers who walked past, at the same time, Woolies had 'hot cross buns' out for sale already.

So Christmas and Easter were now sharing the same space as we shoppers walked past the crib and ventured forth to purchase those delectable hot cross buns that Woolies had set out in their display. I was amazed!!

But before we gorge ourselves on those delicious hot cross buns, can we spend a little time in the ordinariness of life and just enjoy the beginning of another year, without thinking too much about Lent and Easter at this time.

Let's just hasten slowly. God Bless, Fr John

P/S – Mass at Woodford.

I have also decided to cancel the Mass at St Mary's on Monday, just to allow the locals some space following the celebrations of the Baptisms and Conformations that took place on Sunday. Apologies for any inconvenience this may cause. Fr John

The rest of the week Masses are as normal.
